THE DEEP END ~ PEACE ON EARTH?

It is only a few short weeks since Jesus was advising his disciples to greet people with the words 'Peace to this house!' We certainly like to associate Jesus more with peace than division. When Jesus later appears to the disciples after his resurrection, his first words are 'Peace be with you'. And now here he is talking about division!

At the time that Luke was writing his Gospel, the early Christian community was experiencing division. Households were divided over what to believe. It is not that Jesus was encouraging division; rather, not everyone was ready to accept his teachings. Jesus remains a divisive figure today. People either run towards him or run from him. Division is a natural consequence of Jesus' work, and those who follow him must be willing to sacrifice everything.

This is a challenging Gospel for us. It's almost as if Jesus is asking us what we are willing to do in his name, if we are truly ablaze with love for him. We may at times face ridicule or rejection from the world. We may have to change the company we keep, or leave old ways of life behind, in order to truly follow him. In this sense there may well be division.

Please pray for the happy repose of the soul of John Naughton whose funeral took place in our parish church last Friday. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends. May he rest in the peace of Christ. John was well known around the Church. It was he who established and lovingly maintained the beautiful flower beds at the front of the Church that are admired by many visitors. Indeed this garden received a Dublin City Council Neighbourhood Award for excellence.
